Art Unit: 1725

1. Applicant is requested to provide in the specification headings, such as "background of the invention", "summary of the invention", "brief description of the drawings", "detailed description of the drawings" etc. to render the specification in a better format.
2. Claims 4 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 4, second line, "amount" shall be changed to "area"; and in claim 11, "or" shall be deleted to render the meaning definite.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 1725

5. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 6,374,903 to Sears, Jr. or US 3,730,257 to Haussner and further in view of US 4,299,267 to Birat et al.

Each of the primary references substantially shows the invention as claimed except they do not show a copper tube mold for forming a round shape strand (claim 1, etc.) and the supporting plate is connected to the copper tube mold (claim 2, etc.) However, Birat et al. show that it is conventional to use copper tube mold for casting round or polygonal shape strand and connecting the supporting plate to the copper mold tube such that to secure two parts together. It would have been obvious to use a cylinder shape tube mold for casting round shape strand if that type of strand is designated and to secure the mold tube and the supporting plate together to maintain the structural integrity in view of the prior art teaching as a whole. With respect to claims 3-5, it would have been obvious to obtain the optimal structural parameters through routine experimentation. With respect to claim 6, 8, 10, 11, 13, 16 and 17, it would also have been obvious to those of ordinary skill in the continuous casting art to design a proper mold structure such that to maintain the same in structural integrity.
